A person is seen from behind, wearing large black headphones and looking at a computer monitor. The monitor displays the number '54' in a large, light-colored font. The scene is lit from the left by a desk lamp with a glowing orange light, and from the top by a window, creating a dramatic, high-contrast atmosphere. The person's hair is dark and slightly messy. The background shows a window with a white frame and a door handle on the right side.
